

WILSON AND ROOSEVELT

Little Thought or Comment at the Capital Save of Roosevelt

T. R. THOUGHT TO BE WILLING

Many People Believe He Will Enter the Lists of Candidates

Washington, Dec. 27.—Republican uncertainty over candidates and issues has encouraged the very great to do over national politics that has reverberated through official Washington during the holidays. There is little thought or comment at the capitol, save of Roosevelt, Root, return of the leading prodigals and so on—all, it will be noted, topics of the Republican variety. Such a burst of political talk and of such duration has not been heard here before in a long period.

The "close friend of Roosevelt," or the man who knows the very close friend, is numerous here and is having the Gary dinner. He and the other wise men in Republican politics do not believe that Roosevelt yet regards himself as available for another nomination. But the turn of political events in recent days has made Roosevelt again the most discussed political figure. Everybody who knows him will be aware how keenly the ex-president enjoys that kind of a status. Out of the Gary dinner he has gotten many front-page newspaper notices.

That branch of publicity the ex-president has usually capitalized to his advantage in politics. His eagerness and willingness to be a Republican nominee again are fully established by private reports that have been coming to Washington by various messengers for the last six months. The one big thought in Roosevelt's mind as far as politics is concerned appears to be the defeat of President Wilson in 1916. And whether Roosevelt be available for that feat or not a lot of people here believe he will gradually come to the point of thinking that he can do more handsomely than any other living man.

Minority party politics are always feverish at Washington in advance of the real contest. The old saying that Democrats carried elections a few months ahead of time was oft repeated while that party was wandering in the wilderness. Now that the tables are turned, Republicans are doing the same thing, but they have a number of very rich and disconsolate residents here, who must play the game if they are to have any satisfaction out of life. These men are consequently furthering the Republican propaganda vigorously and will keep it up all winter.

In short, the old-time Republican crowd is back on the Washington stage. They, of course, have not the voice in conducting the government that they had of yore, but they are making up for this with increased clatter and din about political prospects. Furthermore, it is to be said that the Jonathan Bourne, the William B. McKinleys and the Boies Penroses, in keeping with their political records, are building up an organization for the fray. This means that Republican agitation, even though it be of the minority kind, will be lusty and prolonged.

NEW VICE-PRESIDENT FOR BOSTON & MAINE

Woodward Hudson Also Becomes General Counsel for the Road.

Boston, Dec. 27.—President Hustis of the Boston & Maine railroad Saturday announced the appointment of Woodward Hudson as vice-president and general counsel of that road, effective Jan. 1. For many years, the Boston & Maine has called for several vice-presidents, each in charge of a special department. At the present time, there is but one vice-president, William J. Hobbs, in charge of finance and accounting.

The duties of the new position will necessarily be largely of an executive character, for the Boston & Maine enters five states, as well as the Dominion of Canada, and in each of those states local counsel is employed. In Massachusetts, Charles S. Pierce, general attorney, is the ranking officer of the law department.

While Mr. Hudson was born in New York City, he has lived at Concord since boyhood. He graduated from Harvard in 1879 and from Harvard law school in 1882, and on graduation was admitted to the Suffolk bar. After traveling in Europe for two years, he entered the law office of Ropes, Gray & Loring, and for three years practiced law under the firm name of Parker, Thorpe & Hudson. In 1888 he entered the service of the Boston & Albany railroad as first assistant to Samuel Hoar, its counsel. On Mr. Hoar's death, Mr. Hudson was appointed head of the law department of that road, which position he relinquishes to assume his new duties with the Boston & Maine.

Mr. Hudson is a member of the Massachusetts, Middlesex and Boston Bar associations, and his opinion on what has come to be termed "railroad law" is highly regarded. Mr. Hudson's work in connection with the Boston & Albany, particularly before legislative committees and the public service commission, is well known and has frequently been favorably commented upon. Mr. Hudson is a member of the Harvard club and Union club of Boston.

FIND $500,000 IN STOCK STOLEN CHRISTMAS EVE

Wilmington, Delaware, Police Recover Securities Hidden in an Old Stove.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 27.—Five hundred thousand dollars in stock certificates and checks stolen from a registered mail pouch while it was in transit in a wagon from the Wilmington postoffice to the Pennsylvania railroad station last Christmas eve were recovered late Saturday night in an old stove at the home of two negroes who were driving the vehicle.

The mail pouch continued stock certificates and checks estimated to be worth $550,000. When the pouch reached the station, it was found open. All but $250,000 of the securities and checks were missing. The remainder was found in the wagon. The drivers of the wagon, Albert and Earl Johnson, who are not related, were arrested on suspicion and held in heavy bail for further examination.

The first search of their home resulted in nothing being found. Another visit by the police late that night, after the men had gone through a severe examination, revealed $350,000 in securities of the DuPont Powder company and $150,000 in checks in the unused stove.

FIVE-BILLION TRADE.

Conducted by United States with Foreign Countries in Year.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 27.—A total of a half billion dollars in the month and of five billion dollars in the year, exports comprising two thirds of the whole, is the unparalleled record of American commerce in November and the twelve months ending with November. Figures made public by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, department of commerce, show that November imports were valued at $161,319,169, as against $126,567,082 in November, 1914, and that they exceeded by $11,000,000 the former November record made in 1912. Twelve months' imports to November 30, 1915, aggregated $1,780,243,229, as compared with $1,638,045,027 in the preceding year.

November exports broke all prior records. Last month's total was $1,141,327, as against $828,030,281 in October, 1915, also a record. One year ago November exports aggregated $838,378,323, and in 1912, the former record, $728,244,191. Twelve months' exports rose to the new level of $3,407,292,533, as against $2,101,187,120 a year earlier, and $2,301,123,471 two years ago.

The export balance for November was $169,925,358, as compared with $79,411,271 for November, 1914; and for the twelve months ending with November last, $1,707,049,304, as against $242,542,065 one year ago and $738,472,112 two years ago.

Duty-free imports comprised 68.3 per cent of the November imports, compared with 62.1 per cent for November, 1914. Gold imports during November, 1915, amounted to $60,581,540, as against $7,391,729 in November, 1914. Twelve months' imports of gold aggregated $410,630,574, as compared with $28,552,033 in the preceding year. November exports of gold were valued at $3,661,353, as against $14,238,482 in November, 1914; while for twelve months ending with November the total was $19,667,557, as compared with $233,067,823 in the preceding year. Instead of a net outward gold movement of $174,760,790 as in the twelve months ending with November, 1914, the year just ended shows a net inward gold movement of $899,98,825.

30,000 CHINESE IN REVOLT

Government Troops in Yunnan, China, Join Rebels

LEADER OF MOVEMENT IS TSAI AO

He Declares Territory Independent of the Chinese Government

Pekin, Dec. 27.—Government troops in the province of Yunnan, China, have joined the revolutionists under Tsai Ao, who has declared the province independent and guaranteed the safety of foreigners. The revolutionary forces now province of Kweichow are unsettled, but disaffections have not been reported in other southern provinces.

PRO-MONARCHIST SLAIN IN A SAN FRANCISCO SAFE

Chinese Editor, Said to be Cousin of Yuan, is Assassinated by Fellow Countryman.

San Francisco, Dec. 27.—Wong Yuan Yung, former editor of the Asiatic News, a paper published at Shanghai, China, as the official organ of Chinese favoring a return to the monarchical form of government, was shot in the back and killed while attending a Chinese Christmas banquet here last night. The assassin escaped and was unrecognized.

Wong had taken his Christmas dinner in a public dining room with C. Y. Kuo and C. T. Lo, both Chinese commissioners to the Panama-Pacific exposition from Chili province, China. In the adjoining banquet hall hundreds of prominent Chinese were seated at dinner. Wong left his companions for a moment to light a cigarette at the cashier's desk. Just as he was about to return to his table an unidentified Chinese fired two shots, both taking effect. The assassin threw his weapon to the floor and dashed down a long staircase to the street, where he disappeared in a crowd of Chinese and sightseers.

Wong Yuan Yung was said to be a cousin of Yuan Shih-kai, head of the Chinese government. He resigned his post as editor of the Asiatic News in November after the building which housed the newspaper plant had been bombed, supposedly by persons desirous of maintaining the Chinese public. He came at once to San Francisco and had been living quietly in a hotel here.

Prominent Chinese said Saturday night that Wong came to this country on a secret mission. Whether he still favored the monarchical form of government for his native land or had transferred his allegiance to the Republicans was not known.

AMERICAN KILLED BY GERMAN SHELL

Richard M. Hall Was Dartmouth Student in French Ambulance Service.

Paris, Dec. 27.—Richard Melville Hall, 21, of Ann Arbor, Mich., a volunteer driver attached to that section of the American ambulance operating with the French army in Alsace, was killed Christmas eve in the performance of his duty. The news was received by telephone by the American ambulance committee.

Hall was the son of Prof. H. G. Hall of the University of Michigan. He was one of a group of Dartmouth college recruits who entered the ambulance service last June and when he met his death he was driving a Dartmouth college field ambulance. He was given a military funeral at the front yesterday afternoon.

L. P. Hall, his brother, who is at present serving in the same section, will return at once to Paris. The details of the young man's death have not yet been ascertained, except that he was driving, or standing near his car when it was struck by a German shell and demolished.

L. C. Doyle of Worcester, was slightly wounded at the same time. Doyle is a graduate of Yale. He joined the ambulance last September and was sent immediately to Alsace. Section three of the ambulance, to which Hall and Doyle belonged, has been at work in Alsace since last April. It has done splendid work on the steep Vosges roads, particularly in the hard fighting of the last six months in the neighborhood of Hartmannsweilerkopf.

FIVE GENERATIONS GATHER.

Group Includes Mrs. Towler, Aged 85, and Baby Wilson, 15 Months.

Barnington, Dec. 27.—Five generations were represented in the Christmas day gathering at the home of Roy C. Lempman at Powell Center. Each member of the unusual gathering was born in and has passed all of his or her life in the limits of the township. They are Mrs. Ann M. Towler, aged 85; Mrs. Mary Frances Lempman, 69; Mrs. F. A. Wilson, 45; Harry M. Wilson, 26; Harold M. Wilson, 15 months.

TRAIN KILLS THREE.

Two Women and a Man Are Victims at Avoca, N. Y.

Corning, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Miss Marie McCann, 20, Ethel McCann, 17, of Avoca and Benjamin Harrison, 20, were killed Saturday at the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad station at Avoca, N. Y. They were run down by a freight train as the railroad tracks crossed a road on the western passenger train. Harrison's body was carried to the station and the other two were buried on the spot of the crash.

YULETIDE IN MANY PHASES

Robertson, Alice Harper, Alfred Sangster; recitation, "The Christmas Rainbow," Phyllis Nichol, Marion Robertson, Edna Simpson, Devina Stephen, Alexandra Walker, Mary Ross, Ina Fair; closing song, "Ring Out Ye Bells of Joy."

Christmas Sunday was observed with special sermons and music. In spite of the stormy day good crowds attended both the morning and evening services. The subject of the discourse in the morning was, "In the Fullness of Time," the choir sang two anthems, "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings" and "A Song in the Night." A vocal solo, "The Story of the Christ Child," was rendered by Nicholas Veale. In the evening a very forceful message having its inception in the topic, "A Message of Peace," was delivered by Rev. Mr. Crossland. Special music included two anthems by the choir, "Sing Jehovah's Praises" and "Bethlehem." Miss Bella Cantley sang for offertory, "He Shall Feed His Flock," "Companions," on the music were many and to W. H. Goodfellow belongs a great measure of praise, for his efforts were very noticeable.

St. Monica's Celebration Notable.

Children of St. Monica's Sunday school to the number of 400 had a most joyous Christmas celebration Sunday afternoon in the Knights of Columbus hall with a real live Santa Claus present, a Christmas tree so loaded with gifts that its groaning was actually audible to every one of the 400 as well as a good many grown-ups who were present to look on, and an interesting program of music, recitations and dialogue. The children assembled at the church at 2 o'clock and marched to the hall in charge of their teachers. There they were met by Father McKenna.

The following program was carried out: Piano march, Charles Bianchi; recitation, "Christmas," Doris Burke; song, "A Mother's Song," Stella Cook; piano solo, Clement McMahon; recitation and song, "The Angel's Visit," girls of the ninth grade; dialogue, "Why We Keep Christmas," girls of the sixth grade; song, "Christmas Time," girls of the fifth grade; drill and bell song, girls of the seventh grade; piano duet, Dante Vaili and Charles Bianchi; song, "The Blessed Star," girls of the third and fourth grades; song, "Lullaby," Lillian and Loretta Papin; song, "Hurray for Christmas," little boys; recitation, "If I Could Find Old Santa," first grade; song, "Jingle Bells," second grade girls; dialogue, "A Peep at Old Santa Claus," Dalton White and Joseph Henis.

During the last dialogue Santa Claus appeared in truth. Daniel Sullivan, garbed in a very wearing apparel that story book Santa wears, came onto the scene and after the dialogue, he proceeded to unburden the tree of its gifts. There was a present for every child and an abundance of candy and other good things. Special thanks are due Father McKenna for the donation of the Christmas tree and to Messrs. James T. Marston, John O'Leary and George M. Marston for gifts of money.

North Barre M. E. Chapel.

Exercises were held at the North Barre M. E. chapel on Berlin street on Christmas eve with a record attendance of children present. The chapel had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by members of the young people's Sunday school class and a Christmas tree well decorated with the generosity of the auxiliary societies and other friends throughout the conference. Many Barre friends were present, as well as Mrs. A. H. Webb, conference president of the W. H. M. S., Vermont conference.

A fine program was arranged largely by Miss Etta L. Burley and was rendered in a pleasing manner by the children. The program was as follows: Song; scripture lesson, Miss Davis; prayer, Rev. E. F. Newell; recitation, "A Large Contract," recitation, "All Like Christmas," recitation, "The First Christmas," solo; recitation, "The Jolly Winter Time," recitation, "A Christmas Flower," recitation, "Santa and His Reindeer," recitation, "The Coming of Jesus," recitation, "I Wonder," song; exercise, "Snowflakes," four children; recitation, "The Prince of Peace," exercise, "That Blessed Night," six boys; song, "Miss Bagley's class," recitation, "If You Are Good," recitation, "The North Wind," recitation, "The Massacre of the Innocents," recitation, "On Jesus' Birthday," four children; song; recitation, "My Gifts," recitation, "His Christmas Gift," exercise, "Miss Bagley's class," recitation, "If You Are Good," recitation, "The North Wind," recitation, "The Massacre of the Innocents," recitation, "On Jesus' Birthday," four children;
